My dear Mr. Garrison

Place the enclosed with your other contribution for the colored people fleeing from oppression.

When my hopes were feeble a year ago your courage was good. Perhaps the negro Exodus is the way of peace & prosperity both for those who go & those who stay.

How "stalwart" all are now; those who justified the surrender are now the most radical in their utterances. That is human nature - we must be patient with it.

Thanks for your courageous, characteristic letters published on the occasion of the New York & Boston meetings.

Very Truly

W-E. Chandler

Mr. Garrison
